Dear Friends:

Summer is a good time to enjoy the great outdoors, with a great many of us visiting friends and family throughout the country. To help keep with the "great outdoors" theme, the Brentwood Senior Club has several wonderful trips planned for July and August. Please be sure to check page 5 & 6 for details on these fun and interesting activities.

Also the cities annual "Starry Nights in Brentwood" concert series takes off with eleven "free" events nearly every Friday night starting June 20th. Pack your dinner and come on down with all your friends and family and enjoy the great entertainment.

And finally, something new for this summer is the start of a book club. Be sure to stop by the center July 22nd and see what your host, Jane McKinnon has in store. Looks interesting!
