Dear Friends:

If you've spent any time at all in the Brentwood Community Center, especially with the folks at the CC Café, you'll often see the smiling face of our volunteer, George Adams.

George often gets here before 8 a.m., helping CC Café Manager Zel Ayers getting things set up and prepared for the days meal. Probably the only time you don't see George is during tax season, otherwise he's here nearly every day.

When asked why he volunteers so much time here with CC Café, George will often just smile and say, "it's the company" and "it's something to do".

Who can argue with him on that as being with friends, meeting new people, and just having a conversation is just as important as the meal. So come down, visit, and be sure to say hi to George, if he doesn't beat you to it!
