Dear Friends:

A year has gone by and then some and so much as happened. Yet we have much more to do.

We've been busy with our trips. The Sacramento trip was especially enjoyable as well as the trip to Reno and the Jelly Belly Factory.

Our Summer Friday Night Free Concerts at the Brentwood City Park have been great entertainment—GOOD MUSIC and GOOD CONVERSATION with concert goers. The Boy's choir thrilled many with their clear, clear tones, energy and excitement. Each concert has been worth hearing.

Our Book Club was started by Jane McKinnon and began with a bang! Our first four books will be lots of fun. Check inside for more details.

We're getting near the completion of our Federal Non-Profit forms. Now we have to pull it all together. Our goal is to finish it this fall.

Setting guidelines for how we spend our time and money in benevolent giving has been a thought provoking exercise. This and other procedures are not glamorous, but comes with developing a new organization.

We're planning to have our coffee and donut booth at the Brentwood Holiday Parade after Thanksgiving. A good cup of coffee along with a good donut
